FRE SPORTS ANNOUNCES INAUGURAL WEST GEORGIA HIGH SCHOOL SENIOR BOWL

Callaway Stadium game will feature high school football all-stars from the region

LaGrange, GA, September 6, 2015– FRE Sports Recruiting announces the West Georgia High School Senior Bowl for outstanding senior players in the region. Over 80 players will hit the gridiron at Callaway Stadium on December 19 at 2 p.m.

"I am really excited for LaGrange to be chosen as host for an all-star game. The game will highlight the best talent this area has to offer," said Dialleo Burks, LaGrange High School Head Football Coach. "I appreciate FRE Sports for giving the players the opportunity to showcase their skills against some top tier talent."

The rosters will feature standout seniors from Carroll, Chattahoochee, Harris, Heard, Fayette, Marion, Meriwether, Muscogee, and Troup counties to play once more before college scouts who may not have completed the recruiting process.

Beginning September 15, coaches can nominate players at the West Georgia High School Senior Bowl on FRE Sports home page, www.fresports.com. Only 84 players will be selected to play in the December game.

"By hosting the inaugural West Georgia High School Senior Bowl in LaGrange, it allows FRE Sports to inspire and give back to the youth in my hometown," FRE Sports Founder Ahmand Tinker and former LaGrange High School standout.

Players from the West Georgia region will be selected by their high school coaching staffs and FRE Sports. Rosters will be announced on September 28. Practice will begin in December.

"It brings pleasure and is a privilege to inspire others to academic and athletic success. We look forward to working with the first group of West Georgia High School seniors," said Tinker.
